A CHILD BRIDE'S SUFFERING

In a deeply distressing situation, we encountered a 15-year-old girl married to a 70-year-old man. Her plight was beyond comprehension, and we were shocked to discover that child marriages still persist in some corners of our nation. This young girl lives in constant fear, facing physical and emotional abuse at the hands of her husband.

When we spoke with her, we urged her to file a complaint and seek help. She shared that her parents had willingly given her to him as a form of debt repayment, trapping her in her circumstances. It's tragic that she feels she has no way out. In that moment, we offered her hope through the love of Jesus Christ. We gifted her a True Joy Package, filled with essentials and words of encouragement, reminding her that she is precious in God's eyes. We prayed with her, affirming that she deserves a life free from fear and filled with hope.

A SACRED DUTY: EMBRACING ANNAPURNA'S STRUGGLE WITH LOVE

Annapurna has faced a lifetime of loss and hardship. She is battling multiple health issues, including thyroid cancer, diabetes, and high blood pressure, summoning the courage to face each day even as her strength wanes. Her only son moved to Kuwait in 1992, staying in touch and visiting regularly until 2000, but then all contact ceased. Since then, she has lived with the painful uncertainty of not knowing if her son is alive or gone, enduring each day alone without support.

Seeing her struggle, True Joy Global Foundation stepped in to offer hope. We arranged for Annapurna to receive care at AIIMS Hospital in Mangalagiri, where she can access the treatment she urgently needs.

Fortunately, she has an Aarogya Sri card—a healthcare card provided by the AP State Government—allowing her to receive treatment at no cost. However, she still needs support to navigate the medical process, and we assured her we would be there to help every step of the way.

We shared God's love with Annapurna, reminding her she is not forgotten. We ask for your prayers for her healing and comfort as she continues this difficult journey, trusting in God's unfailing grace to sustain her.

A Homeless Father's Love

In the shadows of city life, a homeless father fights for survival after the tragic loss of his wife. He is determined to protect his young daughter, striving to provide her with a sense of safety in their uncertain world. Despite his love, he faces immense challenges in feeding her. Each day, he searches for labor jobs in factories, but opportunities seem scarce, and despair begins to creep in.

Desperate to keep their hunger at bay, he begs at bus and railway stations, hoping for enough to buy a meal. His love for his daughter fuels his determination, but the burden of their circumstances weighs heavily on his heart. When our team from True Joy Global Foundation learned of their plight, we immediately stepped in to help. We provided them with nourishing food, warm clothes, and blankets to keep them comfortable through the night.

May God protect this devoted father and his precious daughter, reminding them that they are not alone in their struggles.

A HAND TO HOLD

Singaiah, a 60-year-old man, is in dire need of psychological counseling. His life has been marked by deep trauma, leaving him with unpredictable behavior that often makes him seem distant and withdrawn. He speaks Tamil, but at times, he slips into a language unknown to us, creating a barrier that complicates our attempts to help him. His condition has rendered him vulnerable, and his unpredictability can pose a risk to those who approach him.

Despite these challenges, the spirit of God led us to him. We offered him two pairs of clothes, nourishing food, clean water, and a warm blanket. Our commitment to help him heal remains strong. Through faith and love, we pray that he finds peace and restoration, knowing that God cares for him and will guide him toward the help he needs.

A WIDOWED MOTHER'S STRENGTH

Amidst the challenges of life, a widowed mother tirelessly cares for her children, who struggle with alcohol addiction. Despite her physical exhaustion, she works long hours as a mason, laboring under the scorching sun to provide for her family. She carries heavy bricks and bags of sand up to the second floor, her body protesting against the strain.

At her age, managing such burdens is a daunting task, yet her determination shines through the fatigue etched on her face. Our team at True Joy Global Foundation witnessed her struggles and was moved to help. We provided her with essential support, including food, clothing, and encouragement. We reminded her that she is not alone in this battle and that God sees her sacrifices. With faith, she can rise above her circumstances, drawing strength from the Lord. Together, we can help her find a brighter future for herself and her children.

THROUGH TRIALS, GRACE PREVAILS

In a woman's life, the moments after giving birth are meant to be filled with joy. Her first wish is to see her baby's face, feel the support of her husband, and be surrounded by family. But for Priyadarshini, these moments of happiness were stolen. Instead of joy, her heart was pierced with grief. With tearful eyes, she shared her pain, explaining that while she was still in her hospital bed, her husband—who had an affair with another woman—quietly took their baby from her arms and disappeared.

Orphaned at twelve, Priyadarshini had no family to turn to and was overcome by despair. With the support of hospital staff, she reported the incident to the police and spent days in painful uncertainty, praying to hold her baby again. By God's grace, her child was found, and the reunion filled her heart with indescribable relief and joy.

However, her challenges persisted. Alone and struggling to care for her newborn, Priyadarshini felt lost. It was in this darkest hour that the True Joy Global Foundation stepped in, bringing vital postnatal care and unwavering support. We reminded her that even in our trials, God has a plan. With medical aid, nourishing food, and resources, Priyadarshini found strength and faith, realizing she was not truly alone.

A Woman in Chains

In a dark corner of the town of Repalle, we found a mentally disabled woman who had been repeatedly cast aside and cruelly mistreated by her uncle. Her leg bore numerous wounds—a silent testament to her suffering. Our volunteer, Anil, received a call from a concerned local who had witnessed her abuse. Urgently, our team gathered to assess her situation and provide the help she so desperately needed.

We discovered that her uncle had often resorted to violence, even going so far as to tie her up with chains. The trauma she endured was unimaginable. Without delay, we arranged immediate medical attention for her and secured a safe place for her to stay. Our goal is to provide her with a permanent shelter where she can live in peace and dignity. Guided by the love of Christ, we are committed to restoring her hope and protecting her from further harm.

THANK YOU

The image features the words "THANK YOU" in a bold, three-dimensional, dark blue sans-serif font. The letters are arranged in two rows: "THANK" on top and "YOU" below it. The letters are decorated with various floral elements. Several pink roses in different stages of bloom are placed around the letters, including one inside the 'O' of "YOU". Numerous yellow flower buds on thin green stems are scattered throughout the arrangement. Large, realistic green leaves are also integrated into the design, with one prominent leaf at the top left and another at the bottom right. The entire composition is set against a plain, light-colored background, creating a clean and elegant aesthetic.
