A YOUNG HEART IN NEED OF HEALING

At just 14 years old, little Vidya should be dreaming of her future. Instead, she battles daily with breathlessness, fatigue, and unbearable chest pain due to a hole in her heart. Every step she takes is a struggle, every night a prayer for relief. Her parents, burdened with financial hardship, could only watch in helpless agony as their daughter's health deteriorated.

But God led us to Vidya's family, and by His grace, True Joy Global Foundation stepped in. We provided urgent financial aid for her medical tests and treatment, ensuring she gets the care she desperately needs. Through prayer and unwavering faith, we believe she will receive complete healing. Vidya is not alone—she is loved, supported, and covered in the prayers of believers like you.

A WIDOW'S SILENT STRUGGLE

Gayathri a grieving widow, lost her husband suddenly, leaving her alone to raise their 2-year-old son . The weight of sorrow was unbearable, but even heavier was the struggle to provide for her child. With no stable income, she faced hunger, debt, and a society that often turns away from widows.

God's love reached Mira through True Joy Global Foundation. We not only helped her financially but also encouraged her spiritually, reminding her that she is never alone. We supported her with groceries, emotional counseling, and prayers, ensuring that both mother and daughter could walk forward with dignity. She now holds onto faith, knowing that God is her provider, and she is never forsaken.

Abandoned, But Not Forgotten

Elderly and frail, 78-year-old Kamala was left to fend for herself when her children abandoned her. She sat outside her tiny, broken hut, clutching an empty stomach and a heart filled with sorrow. The pain of rejection and loneliness was even greater than her physical suffering. With no money for food or medicine, her last days seemed destined to be in misery.

But God had a different plan. Through the True Joy Global Foundation, Kamala found a family in Christ. We provided monthly groceries, medical aid, and companionship, assuring her that she is seen, loved, and valued. In her final years, she now has hope, knowing she is not forgotten.

SET FREE FROM ADDICTION – A NEW LIFE IN CHRIST

For years, Ravi drowned himself in alcohol, hopelessness, and self-destruction. His addiction left him homeless, jobless, and abandoned by his loved ones. Every night, he staggered through the streets, searching for meaning in a bottle.

But God never gave up on him. When we met Ravi, we offered him more than just help—we offered him the Gospel. Through prayer, counseling, and support, he found the strength to break free from addiction. Now, Ravi is sober, working, and sharing his testimony of how Jesus Christ saved him. He was once lost, but now he is found and redeemed.

A MOTHER'S MIRACULOUS ESCAPE

- Rushing to catch a train with her one year old son, Pooja lost her balance and slipped between the platform and the moving train. In that moment of terror, she cried out—and God answered. Instead of being crushed, she and her baby were miraculously pulled to safety.

But the struggle didn't end there. Widowed and jobless, Pooja fought every day to feed her child, find shelter, and survive in a world that had little mercy. Through True Joy Global Foundation, God provided her with financial assistance, groceries, and hope. Today, she knows that God spared her for a reason and is walking forward in faith.

A Journey from Hinduism to Christ

Born into a devout Hindu family, Ramesh never imagined his life would change. He followed traditions faithfully, offering prayers to idols, yet felt an emptiness within. When he first heard the Gospel of Jesus Christ, he resisted. How could he turn away from everything he was raised to believe?

But God pursued him. Through miracles, personal encounters, and the love shown by believers, Ramesh began to see the truth. It wasn't a sudden change—it was a transformation shaped by grace, patience, and undeniable encounters with Jesus. Today, he boldly declares, "Jesus is my Savior." True Joy Global Foundation walked alongside him, providing support, prayer, and a community of faith to welcome him into his new life in Christ.
